

Junia Janvier

KEYNOTE SPEAKER | TECH EDUCATOR

Senior Data/AI/Risk Product Manager | Licensed REALTOR® | Inclusive Tech Educator & Public Speaker

Talks that make technology, data, and access feel real for the people in the room.

BIO

Junia Janvier is a Senior Data/AI/Risk Product Manager at Capital One and the founder of Junia Janvier LLC, known as The Education Alchemist. At Boston University, she served as Founding Programs & Course Director at BU Spark! and created DS291: Exploring DEI in Technology. She founded Age of Advocacy, a K-12 digital equity initiative, at 18. Today she teaches in The Wheeler School's Aerie Program and speaks nationally on tech careers, data, and access. She is a Bloomberg Black in Tech Lab Fellow, an AAPF Fellow, and a LegalIEEE Pre-Law Fellow.

SIGNATURE TALKS

Talk	Best for	Audience leaves with
Building a career in tech without a map	Students, early-career, ERGs	A plan for breaking into product, data, and AI roles
Technology is by us, for us	Schools, nonprofits, community groups	Ways to make tech tools and programs work for everyone they serve
Data, AI, and the decisions behind them	Companies, conferences	A plain-language view of how data and AI shape real decisions

Formats: keynote, panel, fireside chat, or workshop. In person or virtual. Delivered in English or Haitian Creole.

PAST STAGES AND RECOGNITION

Stages: NSBE 50th National Convention, Black Is Tech, Blacks In Technology, Girls Who Code, Sophia Academy, Boston University, Center for Women & Enterprise (CWE).

Recognition: Sophia Academy 2024 Women of Wisdom honoree and keynote speaker, with U.S. Congressional Recognition. Bloomberg Black in Tech Lab Fellow (1 of 22 nationally). African American Policy Forum (AAPF) Fellow. LegalIEEE Pre-Law Fellow.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

“Junia is definitely someone you’ll always want on your team. She is reliable, a sharp thinker, and is highly skilled.”

Shatēva Long, Product Manager

BOOK JUNIA

cal.com/junia-janvier/speaking | junia@juniajanvier.com | juniajanvier.com/speaking